BLUE AND GOLD

1960

THE BLUE AND GOLD

IN MEMORIUM

The students and faculty express deep and sincere sympathy to the family of Harold Hatfield.

FORWARD

As the year draws to a close we realize that these past twelve years may well have been the happiest and most carefree years of our life.

We sincerely hope that this year book will serve as a reminder of all the good times we have had together.

Our warmest thanks go to Mr. Kettler, our advisor, for all the help and co-operation he has given us in the past year.

DEDICATION

Esther Hartshorn was born in the village of Newark in Licking County to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hartshorn. After her school days at Newark High School in Newark, Ohio she enrolled at Ohio Wesleyan in Delaware. After completing college she taught at Central High School in Lima, at Bradenton and Winterhaven schools in Florida, at Newark High School, and finally came to Jackson Liberty.

Mrs. Emmert and her husband William Emmert, a lawyer, celebrated their twenty-sixth Anniversary in June. They have a son, William Jr., attending Dental School at Ohio State.

Therefore, the Blue and Gold Staff of "60" takes great pleasure in dedicating our annual to Mrs. Esther Emmert who has devoted many years as a teacher to further the education of the students and also as a friend to the students.

We further dedicate this 1960 Blue and Gold to our parents who have been so kind and understanding the past twelve years

VICTOR C. WOOD

Seniors:

Nearly a thousand years ago a man in Persia wrote, "The moving finger writes and, having writ, moves on—" in describing our inexorable march into history. Each year at graduation time we are struck again by our ability to share common thoughts with a man dead for forty generations.

True, it certainly is, that this class will leave and many others will come to take its place. Yet each class and each individual leaves a mark on the school and every person in it.

In concluding his thoughts on this matter, Omar Khayyam said,

"Nor all thy Piety nor wit
Shall lure it back to cancel half a line.
Nor all thy tears wash out a word of it."

The best of luck to the class of 1960. May the writer of history be kind to you.

Seniors:

During this particular phase of the World's History, many problems confront all of us. Some of them are new ones which only the very finest training and research can solve.

Our hope is that all of you have received an educational background which will enable you to understand and participate intelligently in the rapidly changing present and future.

You have been a part of our lives these past four years to such an extent that your future and ours will be inseparable. We will share in your joys and sorrows, and in your achievements and disappointments.

We wish the best of everything to be your lot and may God be pleased with you.

CLASS WILL

We, the members of the class of 1960, Jackson-Liberty High School, Lakota District, City of Amsden, Sandusky County, State of Ohio, being of sound mind and good health, realize that our school days are coming to an end, and do hereby lay down our last will and testament before the eyes of the public to the said person or persons as follows:

FIRST: To JLHS, we do will and bequeath our school spirit that has brought us through many arguments.
SECOND: To the faculty, we do will and bequeath a most intelligent and well behaved class.
To the Junior Class, we do will and bequeath our ability to have a bulging class treasury.
To the Sophomore Class, we do will and bequeath our athletic ability.
To the Freshman Class, we do will and bequeath our ability to get along with the teachers.
To Mr. Sollars, we do will and bequeath a path to the telephone.
To Mr. Kettler, we do will and bequeath the ability to settle class arguments.
To Mrs. Caughey, we do will and bequeath another senior class as willing to make french fried onion rings.
To Mr. Carroll, we do will and bequeath another government class as prompt and quiet as ours.
To Mr. Chapman, we do will and bequeath our athletic participation.
To Mr. Foulkes, we do will and bequeath another progressive Ag. class.
To Mrs. Nieset, we do will and bequeath the ability to make the rest of the Phys. Ed. class take showers as often as the senior girls do.
To Mrs. Murphy, we do will and bequeath our ability to have clean typewriters.
To Mrs. Emmert, we do will and bequeath our ability to memorize poetry.
To Mrs. Stroud, we do will and bequeath another good first soprano section.
To Mr. Hoover, we do will and bequeath seventeen brilliant chemists.
To Mr. Ezzone, we do will and bequeath two drummers, two clarinets, and a flute.
To Mrs. Snyder, we do will and bequeath a quiet office.
To Glenn Massie, we do will and bequeath twenty-seven less kids to drag mud in.
To the Bus Drivers, we do will and bequeath twenty-seven seats to be filled by quiet students like the seniors of '60.
I, Carol Baumbarger, do will and bequeath my ability to do outside typing for the teachers to anybody who wants to take the time.
I, Peggy Baumbarger, do will and bequeath my athletic ability to Lois Cramer.
I, Lula Byers, do will and bequeath my shortness and my short hair to Nancy Compton.
I, Sue Compton, do will and bequeath my cheerleading ability to Jeanne Cook.
I, Linda Cramer, do will and bequeath my drum to anyone who knows the difference between an on beat from an off beat.
I, Rosalind Frisch, do will and bequeath my blue eyes to Kathy Kisabeth.
I, Mary Jane Hammer, do will and bequeath my false teeth to Nanette Rossman.
I, Lynn Hill, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with the teachers to Jim Baumbarger.
I, Alberta Hollinger, do will and bequeath my ability to have fun to anyone who wants to have fun.
I, Doris Holman, do will and bequeath my laugh and noiseness to Sandra McClory.
I, Kathy Hughes, do will and bequeath my freckles to Cindy Hedden.
I, Anna Marie Kirkwood, do will and bequeath my sneeze to anyone who can stand the embarrassment.
I, Donald Kleinfelter, do will and bequeath my ability to play basketball to Dale Stewart.
I, Janice Knepper, do will and bequeath my sewing ability to anybody that can't sew.
I, Rose Lucius, do will and bequeath my red hair to Sharon Whitman.
I, Annette Moes, do will and bequeath my curly hair to Betty Colwell.
I, Joan Nye, do will and bequeath my shyness to Bill McGough.
I, Sondra Perkins, do will and bequeath my long hair to Dian Woessner.
I, Judy Roth, do will and bequeath my height and thinness to Barbara Kleinfelter.
I, Joe Saalman, do will and bequeath my intelligence in chemistry class to Jeanne Wolf.
I, Anna Saum, do will and bequeath my handwriting to Mr. Hoover.
I, Bernard Scherger, do will and bequeath my willingness to argue in class to Roger Harris.
I, Mary Lou Stearns, do will and bequeath my short hair to Judy Wildman.
I, Thomas Steinmetz, do will and bequeath my shortness to anybody that is tall.
I, Janice Steyer, do will and bequeath my ability to dance at Meadowbrook to Lois Hartline.
I, Garth Thomas, do will and bequeath my height to Jim Harris.
I, Douglas Turpin, do will and bequeath my car to anyone who can keep it running.

PROPHECY

When I reached Hawaii to attend my class reunion on the evening of June 25, 1975 it was beautiful and balmy. The palms were swaying and the ocean was rhythmically lapping against the shore.

I took a taxi and as I rode along the winding road toward Lula Byers' and Doris Holman's beach house, I became aware of a steady din breaking the tranquility of the June evening. When I finally reached the palm-lined drive-way, Lula and Doris came running down the drive toward me. They had really outdone themselves on this beach house. It was very beautiful. When I asked them how they could afford such a place they explained that they were very highly paid models. Doris said that they had become tired of all that glamorous society life and had bought the house to get some peace and quiet.

As we walked toward the house, Lula mentioned that all of the class of "60" had been able to attend the reunion except Peggy Baumbarger and Lynn Hill. They were both on duty in Alaska. Peg is the Head Nurse of a large Military Hospital and Lynn is teaching school in Juneau.

Upon approaching the terrace I heard the sound of clicking needles. I knew it must be Mrs. Jerry Paxton. Jan was knitting a sweater. Jerry and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Shaver were sitting quietly talking over old times. They had decided that the party was getting a little crowded, and had come out for some fresh air. Mrs. Shaver, the former Mary Lou Stearns, and Mrs. Paxton, the former Janice Knepper, were co-owners of a well-known beauty salon in Boston.

I was anxious to know how my other class-mates had fared so I excused myself and went into the crowded room. It seemed as though everyone was having a wonderful time and everyone was trying to talk at once.

As I pushed my way through the crowd, I felt someone touch me on the shoulder. On turning around I came face to face with Anna Marie and Alberta. They had left their children with their husbands and were now having a great time. Alberta was working as a Dental Assistant, and Anna was specializing as a hair stylist.

Just then Linda Cramer came over. Linda said that she was doing very well as a music teacher in one of the exclusive eastern schools.

We discussed teeth, hair, and children, then we walked over to the buffet to get something to eat.

Two women were taking small bites of food from every plate. Linda told us that they were Mary Jane Hammer and Joanne Nye. They were both working in the Betty Crocker Homemaking Test Kitchens and they just couldn't resist testing the flavor of Hawaiian food.

By this time it was getting quite late so everyone decided to retire for the night and resume talking over past school days the next day.

The butler and maid showed everybody to their rooms and within a short time everything was peaceful and quiet.

While I stood by the window I saw some weird shadows on the beach. I couldn't decide what they were so I started out of the house to see for myself. Upon coming closer to the beach I heard laughter and music. I might have known! Judy Roth and Kathy Hughes were trying to teach Doug Turpin and Garth Thomas how to Cha-Cha. Thomas Steinmetz was sitting on a rock laughing at them and eating bananas. Garth seemed to be catching on to it a little but Doug was still having trouble. Garth is a leading Engineer in New York and Doug is a Major in the U.S. Army.

Thomas said he was getting along very well with his own business. Since he always had a head for figures he had become a wealthy public accountant.

Garth and Doug grabbed some of Thomas's bananas and sat down to rest their tired legs.

Judy and Kathy told us they lived in New Orleans, and since they were prominent society leaders they had just wanted to help Doug and Garth get along in society.

I left them to their dancing and walked back to the beach house. As I entered my room I heard a loud crash from the next room. The door opened and Joe Saalman came storming out of the room, a shoe whizzing past his head. It seems that Joe and his wife, Janice (Steyer), were having a small disagreement over Joe's new Hawaiian shirt. Joe is a real-estate agent and Janice has a beauty salon in their lovely home. After Joe and Janice had decided to stop quarreling, I went into my room and fell asleep.

The next morning I was awakened by a thump and a scream. I ran to the window to find Professor Bernard Scherger lying in the flower bed groaning with a ladder lying across him. By the time everyone had gotten down to the garden, Bernard was in very capable hands.

Rose Lucius, Rosalind Frisch, and Anna Lou Saum, all being registered nurses, had everything under control.

Mr. Don Kleinfelter, who owned a large farm in Ohio, was explaining how Bernard had fallen from the ladder. It seemed that Don couldn't sleep so he had come outside to explore things in the daylight. He had seen some strange beetles on the roof of the house and was sure that Prof. Scherger would like to examine them. He had called Bernard and Bernard took his equipment up to the roof. He became so entranced with the beetles that he failed to notice that he was nearing the edge of the roof. Both Bernard and the ladder came tumbling down.

By the way, Bernard is a foremost authority on the subjects of Chemistry, Biology and Zoology.

During breakfast I was seated between Carol Baumbarger and the former Annette Moes. Carol told us that she was secretary for the Governor of Ohio.

Annette was very happy with her husband, Mr. Paul Shaull, who is the owner of a Construction Company in Wyoming.

After thanking Lula, and Doris for their hospitality, and promising to have another reunion soon, everyone started to fill cars, and helicopters with baggage.

Just as I was getting into my car Sondra Perkins came running over lugging a suitcase and trying to hold on her huge hat. Sondra looked lovely in a blue-flowered sarong. She asked me if I would drop her off at Wai-Ki-Ki where she was a secretary for a large, expensive hotel.

While we drove to the hotel I thought how wonderful it had been to see the Class of "60" once again.

DRAMATICS AND MUSIC

J-L RHYTHMETTES

Left to Right: Lois Hartline, Annette Moes, Linda Cramer, Janet Striff, Lois Cramer, Nancy Compton.

When you see six peppy gals, the Rhythmettes, wearing light brown, military-styled suits, you know they are going to have fun whenever they sing. The ensemble consists of two seniors, two juniors, and two sophomores. Oh yes, we must not forget Sue Compton who accompanies them on the piano. They have been very active this year singing for different meetings, programs and organizations. To date they have been practicing with the aid of Mrs. Stroud and Mr. Ezzone for the District Contest.

VOCAL INSTRUCTOR

MRS. STROUD

This is Mrs. Stroud's first year in the Lakota School District. To date she has had two Christmas Concerts; one at Jackson-Liberty and one at Jackson-Burgoon. She is at present planning Spring Concerts to be held in each of the three schools.

The Lakota Band consists of Jackson-Liberty, Jackson-Burgoon, and Risingsun, there are one hundred five members.

One of the most exciting places we played this year was at Bowling Green October 10, 1959 for their 50th Anniversary.

Seven of the members had the honor of playing at Gibsonburg district band festival.

The Marching Band played at several football games last fall, and the Concert Band has a full schedule of places to play in the spring of 1960.

The dance band was organized in November 1959, and consists of twenty-five members and has played at events throughout the Lakota district.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

A LUCKY PENNY

A COMEDY IN THREE ACTS

Penny Pringle (portrayed by Annette Moes) is a teen-ager who is determined to go to art school in pursuit of her artistic ambitions. However, when Kerry, her boy-friend (Joe Saalman), learns that her interests have been redirected only to her work and to the painting of the soul of Joanna, her best friend (Sue Compton), he, helped by Greg, his buddy (Don Kleinfelter), and Penny's grandmother (Rose Lucius), sets out to win back her love and to make her decide to forget art and go to college.

Laugh after laugh is added to the comedy by Penny's mother (Alberta Hollinger) who is campaigning for president of a civic club—of course, she is the only candidate and by Penny's father (Bernard Scherger) in his attempt to get an advertising contract from a soap company, represented by Miss Haskins (Sondra Perkins). Even more fun emerges through Hulda, the Pringle's dim-witted maid (Doris Holman); the "man-hungry" models, Vera (Anna Marie Kirkwood), Georgina (Janice Steyer), and Susette (Linda Cramer); Mr. Daly, a neighbor (Tom Steinmetz); Flash, a roving photographer (Doug Turpin), and Policeman O'Shane (Garth Thomas).

VARSITY SQUAD

DALE THAXTON
Guard

Dale is one of our most valuable players in both offensive and defensive. We are sure he will do better yet, next year.

DALE STEWART
Guard

Dale broke into the starting lineup in his freshman year. One of the shortest boys on the team. He kept the opponents working, with his fine ball handling and fine defense.

ROGER HARRIS
Center

This is Roger's first year as a Varsity player. He pulls down most of the rebounds. His shooting ability has improved this year, but more is expected of him next year.

BOB SALISBURY
Guard

Bob is new at our school this year. He is noted for his long jump shots. The spectators will have their eyes on Bob again next year.

CARL CESSNA
Forward

Carl, a 6'3" junior kept the team scoring with his rebounding and shooting ability. He will be a big help to the team again next year.

VARSITY SQUAD

DALLAS DRENNING
Forward

This was Dal's first year as a varsity player. He was a constant threat and kept the opponent guessing with his jump-shots. Next year Dallas will try to be tops.

LARRY STULL
Guard

Larry showed his offensive and defensive ability this year. He has a very bright outlook for next year.

TOM WATKINS
Forward

Tom's ability has improved as the season has progressed. He is doing a good job of getting the ball off the backboard. Tom will also be valuable next year.

JOE SAALMAN
Forward

Joe, the only Senior boy, did a fine job of substituting in his last year. His defensive and rebounding power was very useful.

JERRY COLEMAN
Forward

Jerry, a junior, did a lot of substituting. Jerry showed the spectators how to shoot a jump shot and make it count. They will have their eyes on him again next year.
